Not too long ago, some kids found a firearm. maybe they were looking for it because of something they saw on TV. Maybe it was a dare from a friend. Maybe they just found it left around by somebody. It really doesn't matter why they found it. What matters is that the firearm was loaded and they played with it. Now they are very sorry they did and will remember the rules for the rest of their lives. don't let this happen to you, please follow all of the safety rules:

1. Don't go looking for firearms in your house or any house. Don't let other kids look for firearms in your house.
2. If you find a firearm in your house, or anywhere else, leave it alone!! Don't move or touch it. Tell an adult.
3. Even if the firearm looks like a toy, don't touch it. Tell an adult.
4. If you use a firearm with your parents or other responsible adults, please practice safety at all times. Never point the weapon at something you don't intend to shoot.
